

Assignment Submission Instructions

Assignment Overview:

- Length: Your research paper should be a minimum of 7 pages and can be longer if needed.
- Topic: Choose a topic that is clear and specific. Your topic should be well-defined and relevant to the course material.
- Deadline: The assignment is due in week 6. Late submissions will not be accepted unless there is a documented emergency.

Submission Requirements:

- Format: The paper should be typed, double-spaced, and use a readable font such as Times New Roman, 12-point size. Margins should be set to 1 inch on all sides.
- Citations and References: Use citation style, e.g., APA, MLA, Chicago for all in-text citations and references. Include a reference list at the end of your paper.
- File Format: Submit your paper in a (PDF & Word Document) format.
- File Naming: Name your file in the format (NAME-Roll No-Assignment Title)

Presentation:

- Individual Work: This assignment is to be completed individually. Collaboration with other students is not allowed.
- Presentation Requirements: You will also be required to present your research findings to the class. The presentation should be 5-minute-long and should clearly summarize your research.

Late Submission Policy:

- No Late Submissions: Papers must be submitted by the deadline. Late submissions will not be accepted without valid and documented emergencies (e.g., medical emergencies).
- Documentation: If you have a legitimate reason for a late submission, you must provide documentation (e.g., a doctor's note) and notify me as soon as possible.

Assignment Requirements:

- Clarity and Organization: Your paper should be well-organized, with clear headings and subheadings. Ensure that your arguments are logical and supported by evidence.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism is strictly prohibited. Ensure that all sources are properly cited and referenced. Use plagiarism detection tools if necessary.

Research Paper pattern

Title Page

- Title: The main topic of your paper, clearly and briefly stated.
- Your Name: Your full name.
- Course Title: The name of your course.
- Instructor's Name: The name of your teacher.
- Date: When you are submitting the paper.

Abstract

- Purpose: What is your research about? What problem or question are you trying to answer?
- Methods: How did you do your research? How did you gather and analyze your data?
- Results: What did you find out from your research?
- Conclusion: What do your results mean? Why is this important?

Introduction

- Background Information: Give some background on your topic so people understand why it matters.
- Research Question or Thesis Statement: What specific question or argument are you exploring?
- Purpose and Significance: Why did you choose this topic? What is its importance?

Literature Review

- Summary of Existing Research: What have other people said about your topic? Summarize their key points.
- Gaps in Research: What is missing in the current research that your study will address?

Discussion

- Interpretation of Results: What do your findings mean in relation to your main question or argument?
- Comparison with Existing Research: How do your results compare with what others have found? Are there any differences or similarities?
- Implications: What do your findings mean for the field or real-world applications?

Conclusion

- Summary of Key Findings: Summarize the main discoveries from your research.
- Research Contributions: How does your research add to what we already know?
- Limitations: What were the limits of your study?

- Suggestions for Future Research: What should be explored next on this topic?

References

- Citation List: A list of all the sources you used in your paper, following the required style (like APA or MLA).