Without that morning meal, the body does not wake up completely. It is lacking the necessary fuel for energy. By lunchtime, people who skip breakfast tend to be overly hungry, so they will eat too much. Perhaps the most serious effect of not eating breakfast is that the body's metabolism will not work properly.

3. Write a topic sentence for the given paragraph: [3 marks]

First, you may want to begin search online. There are numerous job-search websites, both local and international. When you have found an interesting job opening, do you research. Find out as much as you can about the company and the position itself. Next, review your resume and make any necessary changes. The resume should fit each job that you apply for. You should also make sure that the resume highlights all of your previous employment and education. Finally, fill out the application and include all other necessary documentation. Remember that persistence is the key to getting the job you want. By following these steps, you can be confident that you find a job sooner rather than later.
